

Right to Work Essential Information

Thank you for your interest in joining the Jet2holidays team!

We employ on local employment contracts across all our destinations, to be successful in any role you must already hold the full right to work documents for the country where the role is based. For the majority of our positions you must already be living in the destination or willing and able to source your own accommodation.

To help you, we have included a breakdown of the Right to Work documents we require by country.
